FROM THE PASTOR

This bulletin covers two weeks--June 26 and July 3. Summer is flying by all too quickly. The Fourth of July will soon be here. It is a time where we celebrate our freedom. In light of world events, I hope that we will not take it for granted.

Jubilee Year of Mercy - June 26, 2016: Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Yet again in Ordinary Time, Jesus seems to demand extraordinary commitment. A would-be disciple enthusiastically volunteers to follow Jesus "wherever" (Luke 9:57). Jesus replies that "wherever" means "nowhere to rest his head" (9:58). To other candidates, Jesus brusquely denies reasonable requests to fulfill family obligations (9:59, 61), declaring that discipleship demands total commitment—now! But Jesus also demands that we not judge how others respond. When James and John volunteered to "call down fire from heaven" (9:54) to destroy an unwelcoming town, Jesus "turned and rebuked them" (9:55). All violence of any kind is completely unacceptable among Jesus' disciples, a lesson this Jubilee Year of Mercy is teaching the Christian community once again. Paul's challenge to the Galatians and us reinforces Jesus' decisive command to James and John that they express their commitment to him through compassion for others. We must abandon the violence of "biting and devouring one another" (Galatians 5:15), choosing instead to "serve one another through love" (5:13). —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Focus on the Mission

"There are so many things to do." "We have so little time." How many variations of these statements have you heard or even said yourself?

Actually neither statement is completely true. There are many things to do in this life, but really few things that are vitally important. Working, searching, conniving, and worrying our way to "gratify[ing] the desires of the flesh," as Paul relates in today's second reading, are really non-productive. So little time? When we take on the freedom that Christ offers us, we have all the time we need in this world, and even more in the next.

Elisha, the prophet Elijah's chosen servant, was slightly befuddled about what he should do. When Elijah called, he returned to bid farewell to his parents and provide food for his people. Only then did he follow.

Jesus demands something different, something more of his disciples. He calls us to a single-minded determination to drop everything and follow him. Now, not later. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Jubilee Year of Mercy – July 3, 2016: Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Sunday, Jesus rebuked James and John for wanting to "call down fire from heaven" (Luke 9:54–55) on an unwelcoming town. As he sends forth disciples today, Jesus again forbids retaliation against non-receptive listeners (10:10–11), showing us how to be Jesus' "missionaries of mercy" this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Like the first disciples, we are sent not to proclaim ourselves but Jesus. As Jesus sent them in pairs, so are we also to work together in the community of the Church. We often describe the Church as Isaiah describes Jerusalem in today's first reading, our comforting, nurturing Mother (Isaiah 66:13). So, going forth gently, like lambs among wolves (Luke 10:3), we share comforting peace, nurturing food and drink (Luke's image for Eucharist), and Jesus' healing promise of unfailing, unconditional mercy (10:5, 7, 9). Thus Jesus bids us proclaim the kingdom of God by showing what God's kingdom looks like in action. "Go, preach the Gospel," Pope Francis' saintly namesake of Assisi is said to have instructed his first friars, "and when necessary, use words!"

Peace

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today's readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "LORD's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Quote from the Pope

"A Christian is a man, or a woman, of joy: a man and a woman with joy in their heart. There is no Christian without joy! You may be told that there are many such Christians, but they are not Christians! They say they are, but they are not! They are missing something.

The Christian identity card is joy, the Gospel's joy, the joy of having been chosen by Jesus, saved by Jesus, regenerated by Jesus; the joy of that hope that Jesus is waiting for us, the joy that - even with the crosses and sufferings we bear in this life - is expressed in another way, which is peace in the certainty that Jesus accompanies us, is with us.

The Christian grows in joy through trusting in God. God always remembers his covenant. The Christian knows that God remembers him, that God loves him, that God accompanies him, that God is waiting for him. And this is joy." (Pope Francis, Homily, May 23, 2016)

JustNews

According to Pope Benedict, "Peace concerns the human person as a whole, and it involves complete commitment. It [calls for] .... the common good in society at its different levels, primary and intermediary, national, international and global." In a world filled with violence, including the mass shooting in Orlando, we are reminded of St. Bridget's commitment to peace with the 7th anniversary of the installation of our Peace Pole and Peace Garden on the southwest corner of our church's landscape. Peace poles 1) symbolize the oneness of humanity and our common wish for a world at peace, 2) remind us to think, speak and act in the spirit of peace and harmony, and 3) stand as a silent visual for peace to prevail on earth. The wording on our octagonal Peace Pole is "May peace prevail on earth" in eight languages – English, Hebrew, Arabic, Hindi, Swahili, Ojibway, Chinese, and Irish. You are invited to use this beautiful space in prayer and meditation for peace. Also please notice the "peace" decorations in the Fellowship Hall. Please watch for more information late this summer about an ecumenical "Walk for Peace" and brief prayer service at our Peace Pole. For more information, please contact Jackie Brux, 715-425-8606, Jacqueline.m.brux@uwrf.edu.

Garage Sale Thank You!

Thank you to all who helped with the St. Bridget Garage Sale by bringing donations, volunteering, setting up and taking down tables, spreading the word, shopping, and loading the Easter Seals Truck afterward! The sale raised $5,886.08. That money will benefit our St. Bridget youth attending the Mission Trip, the St. B School trip to Wolf Ridge, the Knights of Columbus, and the Church in general.
