FROM THE PASTOR

Jubilee Year of Mercy: September 11, 2016 - Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reconciliation

True reconciliation is emotional, dramatic, and cleansing. When two people meet heart to heart and work through old hurts, misunderstandings, and careless words, cleansing tears often flow and the encounter ends with an embrace that fills both with the warmth of a love too strong to fade.

The readings this weekend assure us of this healthy release that comes with reconciliation. They give us the courage to reach out to someone with whom we need to reconcile ourselves, and give us the courage to ask for forgiveness from God, too.

In the reading from Exodus, we see how God refuses again and again to give up on the Israelites. Even though they grow impatient with God and turn to false idols, God still calls them back. Luke's Gospel assures us that God rejoices when we turn away from sin. Paul's letter to Timothy encourages us, like Paul, to look back on our lives and recognize where God's patient mercy has been shown to us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

9/11 Remembered

Fifteen years ago, the continuing TV coverage of the imploding twin towers of the World Trade Center in New York was unbearable for me, as were accounts of the crashes and destruction in Washington and the hills of Pennsylvania. The immense devastation of human life was incomprehensible. Visiting the site in New York some five years later reopened searing wounds, and overwhelmed me with immense sadness. An incursion on our soil, carefully planned and executed by foreign elements, had shattered my cherished sense of security, and provoked a frightening sense of God's absence.

How could my Catholic faith tradition enable me to endure this tragedy? I knew that neither vengeance nor sweeping animosity was an option for me.

You have left us crushed . . . covered us with darkness. We are bowed down to the ground (Psalm 44:20, 26).
O Lord of hosts, restore us; Let your face shine upon us (Psalm 80:4).

The Psalmist cries a lament, expressing the mourning of the Israelite people, the chosen of God, who had regarded themselves as untouchable and above reproach, now hurled into misery. The lament expresses a nation's agony, dares to complain against their divine protector, may even own some complicity in the misery, and finally pleads with God for deliverance.

In the midst of lamenting, the faith of Israel endured, as must ours. We are as vulnerable as they were to the violence and hatred that seem to encircle us. Our demand for a divine explanation goes unheeded. Yet we have learned of the self-sacrificing heroism of many, witnessing to the finest character of our nation and of our Christian heritage. Dying for one's friends is a sacred theme in our story, epitomized in Jesus, our Savior, and extended through centuries in the grandest and noblest acts of men and women in all circumstances.

In 2001 we came together as one nation under God, sharing the grief, the disillusionment, and the promise to rebuild. As today we lament our honored dead and wounded, shall we translate such agonizing emotion into a persistent pursuit of worldwide reconciliation and peace? —Rev. Andrew Nelson, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Want to become a Catholic Christian through RCIA?

The mission of the Catholic Church is to preach the gospel as Jesus commanded us. If you would like to join the Catholic Church or know of someone who would like to join the Church, please contact St. Bridget's or St. Mary's Church offices. The process to join the Church is called RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). These sessions meet about once a week with presentations and discussions on various aspects about the Catholic Faith. Questions are always welcome at these sessions. We do have people at both parishes who have asked to join the Catholic Faith. If you are interested, call or email the church offices or myself, and we will get you started. Thanks. Fr. Harris

Welcome Fr. Bill Deziel on September 18 at 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses!

Bill Deziel will be covering the 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses at St. Bridget so Fr. Harris can be a part of this celebration. Fr. Bill is the brother of Sheila (Paul) Steiner of St. Bridget. Welcome!
