FROM THE PASTOR

Jubilee Year of Mercy: September 18, 2016 - Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mercy is one thing, malpractice quite another. Why, then, does the defrauded master in Jesus' parable praise the devious steward? Jesus shows by example how to sanctify material goods: by placing all our resources, indeed our very selves, at the service of others. No matter how costly such service, or how minimal the return, such charity is the wisest investment, yielding a reward that is literally out of this world. For Amos and Jesus, authentic worship of God demands practical charity toward our neighbor. Paul, too, declares that the only worship acceptable to God is offered by a community rich in charity. Liturgy must be matched to life, "lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument" (1 Timothy 2:8). This Jubilee Year of Mercy challenges us to live as "children of light," as devoted to self-sacrificing service as "the children of this world" (Luke 16:8) are to serving themselves, as enthusiastic for God's kingdom of justice as we are about less-enduring treasures. —Peter

Our Responsibility for Others

The Second Vatican Council has called us to envision the Church as the people of God. As a community of believers we are responsible for our brothers and sisters, their salvation, their journey of faith, their physical well-being. Many of the documents of Vatican II and volumes of work since the mid-1960s give us advice, guidelines, and encouragement to take care of one another: the poor, the elderly, the unborn, the broken, the infirm.

Because Vatican II is part of our recent history—indeed many of us were already born—this may strike us as a new and revolutionary idea. But today's readings show us the agelessness of the issue of social justice. Eight hundred years before Christ was born, Amos warned the wealthy not to cheat the poor. In Paul's first letter to Timothy, he encourages all prayers to be for all people; and finally, the Gospel urges the wise use of money.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Customs surrounding the naming of babies are interesting, and over time the Church has tried to offer some motherly advice to direct parents in this necessary chore. The ritual book used for baptism from the sixteenth to the mid-twentieth centuries advised priests to guard against giving ridiculous or pagan names to babies consigned to their ministry. In 1666 the diocesan ritual of Bourges in France was even more exacting, telling the priests to see to it that boys were named after male saints, girls after female saints, and no one got named after a festival. Yet, records from that very diocese in later years shows a few babies named "Toussaint" (after All Saints Day) along with other creative expressions. In Spain, no one has ever hesitated to name babies after festivals, especially girls after Our Lady, and so there are names like Concepción, Asunción, and of course Dolores (after Our Lady of Sorrows). In Italy and Spain is it likely that a child will receive the name of the saint of the day of its birth.

Today's rites of initiation for adults and infants urge the giving of a Christian name, and in the case of an adult whose given name expresses a pagan or unseemly idea (Baal and Whiskey come to mind), there is a formal rite during the catechumenate for the giving of a Christian name. In such a case, it would make sense for the change to be registered with civil authorities as well. For all Christians, the idea of having a heavenly patron to pray to on life's journey is reason enough to pay attention to this treasure in our tradition.

Catholic Services Appeal

Today the 2016 Catholic Services Appeal officially begins in our parish and throughout the Diocese of Superior. Because of Father Harris' absence, the diocesan video will be played next week at all Masses. The CSA is an opportunity for us to unite with all Catholics in the diocese to share our blessings and to show our support for one another. Your gift is important. Please assist our parish and our diocese in providing a wide variety of religious, educational, pastoral and charitable services throughout all fourteen counties of our diocese. Many of you have already received a mailing from Bishop James Powers explaining the appeal and its goals. Envelopes should be returned to the parish office or placed in the collection plate. Additional envelopes are available in the pews or you may contribute safely, quickly, and securely online at <http://catholicdos.org/st-bridget-river-falls-giving>. This link is also available on the website. Thank you in advance for your commitment and generosity.

Donut Ministry

As we begin our favorite season — donut season — we are finding it more and more challenging to get volunteers and to keep a consistent schedule. In order for us to have donuts each week, we need more people to help. Without new volunteers, we will only be able to have donuts every other week. If you can help, please call the church office. It's a great opportunity to be part of something wonderful!

STRATEGIC PLAN UPDATE

After nearly two years of dedicated hard work by many volunteers, the parish council and Father Harris unanimously approved our parish strategic plan last spring. After taking a break this summer, we now begin to implement the action steps identified in the plan — specifically those identified as needing first priority. The first items on the list include creating and implementing a parish wide survey to gauge our current parish needs; reviewing our parish mission statement; better communicating of parish finances; creating a staffed welcome area for our Sunday experience; and conducting a parish wide event to help foster a sense of community (and celebrate Father Harris' 20 year anniversary).

If you are interested in helping with any of the items listed above or have specific questions regarding the plan, please contact the parish office for more information.

More information and strategic plan updates will be shared regularly.
