Jubilee Year of Mercy: September 25, 2016 - Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Amos castigates religious people who, “comfortably complacent” (6:1, 5), ignore the unfolding collapse of culture, nation, religion (6:6). In Jesus’ parable, such complacency becomes the rich man’s undoing. He neither hurt nor harmed Lazarus, neither denied him leftovers nor ordered him removed. That is Jesus’ devastating point. The rich man did nothing wrong to Lazarus; he just did nothing at all good for him. Only in death, separated by “a great chasm” (Luke 16:26), could the rich man finally see Lazarus, whom he had failed to see in life, right before his eyes. Like the rich man’s “five brothers still in my father’s house” (16:27–28), we who are alive in the Church still have time to see that same Someone, Jesus, lying neglected right at our door—and time to do something. Who, specifically, concretely, practically, is Lazarus in my life? What can I do for that Jesus-in-the-flesh during this Jubilee Year of Mercy? —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Treasures from Our Tradition

We’ve been thinking about names lately, and there is hardly any tradition older than changing one’s name when accepting a new vocation in life. In the time of Jesus, people would normally wait until the eighth day after birth for the naming of a child, partly because of the fragility of infant life, when the eighth day would mark the end of a survival crisis, and also because the elders would look for some clues as to the child’s identity. In Jewish life then as now, it was not the custom to name a child after a living parent; notice there are no “juniors” in the genealogy of Jesus. Remember also how the relatives complained to Zachary and Elizabeth that no one in their family was ever named John. Then there are the changed names, Abram became Abraham, Sarai became Sarah, Saul became Paul, Simon became Peter. This spills over into Western culture in many ways, such as British royalty taking new names at coronation. It’s anybody’s guess, for example, whether the Prince of Wales intends to be King Charles II, or become Henry, or Edward, or George if he wishes.

Members of religious orders have until recent years swapped baptismal names for new ones, and the latest pope made a switch as well. Secular life has many parallels, and movie stars like Cary Grant, Judy Garland, and John Wayne might not have shone so brightly as Archie Leach, Frances Gumm, and Marion Morrison. There are some compelling reasons in our tradition for taking a new name when undertaking a new mission, yet also a clear preference for choosing the right baptismal name from the start! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Want to become a Catholic Christian through RCIA?

The mission of the Catholic Church is to preach the gospel as Jesus commanded us. If you would like to join the Catholic Church or know of someone who would like to join the Church, please contact St. Bridget’s or St. Mary’s Church offices. The process to join the Church is called RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). These sessions meet about once a week with presentations and discussions on various aspects about the Catholic Faith. Questions are always welcome at these sessions. We do have people at both parishes who have asked to join the Catholic Faith. If you are interested, call or email the church offices or myself, and we will get you started. Thanks. Fr. Harris

CSA (Catholic Services Appeal) this weekend

The Catholic Services Appeal or CSA begins this weekend. It is our opportunity to stand with everyone in our Diocese of Superior as we care for God’s Kingdom in this part of the world. Some people think this CSA is a tax on our parish. It is not. It is our Stewardship to the Greater Church. Every dime contributed directly or indirectly benefits our local Churches of St. Bridget and St. Mary’s Immaculate Conception. The CSA contributions provide the framework for our parish operations, programs, and for the future generations of Catholic Christians. Our CSA goal is our gift to the current and future Church.

In this Sunday’s gospel we hear the story of the “Rich Man and Lazarus.” Lazarus begged at the Rich Man’s gate but was given nothing. Both men died and Lazarus rested in the bosom of Abraham while the rich man was tormented in what would be termed hell.

The Rich Man did nothing to harm Lazarus. That is the point: he did nothing! He just ignored him. We may not change the entire world by our contributions but we can say to God: “We notice the needs and we did what we could.” That is all God asks: That we notice the needs of those around us and do what we can.

At St. Bridget and/or at St. Mary’s, here are some things that we do to live the gospel:

We Preach The Gospel (Matthew 28:19 “go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations.”)

Masses, women’s retreats, men’s bible study and support group, active faith formation for youth, youth mission trips, parish school, Totus Tuus (youth retreats), monthly Lifeline masses at St. Paul Net Center, Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), Vacation Bible School (VBS), Communion brought to area care centers and assisted living centers weekly by volunteers, parish retreats and gifted speakers brought in to make the Gospel of Jesus real to daily life, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, prayer line, prayer groups, liturgical ministries, prayer shawl ministry and a number of other care ministries.

We Wash Feet... (At the Last Supper Jesus washed feet and commanded us to do likewise.)

Tuesday Banquets are hosted at St. Bridget; St. Mary's helps at Community Supper at Gethsemane Lutheran in Baldwin; supporting Our Neighbor's Place shelter and housing services; GRACE PLACE Shelter in New Richmond; Good Samaritan Fund; contributing to Assistance and Resource Center (ARC) to help those who need assistance with rent, utilities and gas cards; Good Samaritan Fund; St. Bridget's emergency fund to help parishioners when emergencies arise; jail ministry; hosting support groups such as divorce care, breast cancer, Alzheimer's support group, AA and Al-Anon; providing rides to those who need it; support Pro-Life; Senior Gatherings; participating in the Ecumenical Christmas Giving Tree to give families gifts and food; offering community meals; and working with community leaders to meet our community needs.

Please prayerfully consider what you can do to support this year's Catholic Services Appeal.

Thank you in advance for your support. - Fr. Jerry Harris

Introducing Amy Burns our new High School Ministry Leader!

We are glad to have Amy Burns join St. Bridget's Parish part-time in Youth Ministry. Amy comes to us with 20+ years of passionate youth ministry. Her background includes membership and leadership in school and community organizations and faith based youth groups. Amy Burns is very energetic, purposeful, and engaged. She is extremely empathetic and sensitive to the special needs of a wide range of families. Amy uses a proactive approach that recognizes the changing needs and interests of children through young adults and her programs are designed to provide continuity and expanded opportunities as student growth occurs. She is creative both with her personal interactions and with her program activities – often promoting her kids to go well beyond their comfort zones by following her examples.

Amy will be here after all Masses next weekend to meet and greet.

Please welcome Amy!

US Catholic Bishops, Communities of Salt and Light. We can respond to this call by contacting our legislators immediately to encourage them to support generous funding of U.S. domestic and international policies that reduce poverty and bring food aid to those in need. Contact our legislators by going to Senate.gov and House.gov.

Welcome to Our New Accompanist

We would like to welcome Garret Ross as our new accompanist here at St. Bridget. He and Keith Brux will continue to share the responsibility of playing at weekend masses. We thank him for sharing his gift with us.
