FROM THE PASTOR

Jubilee Year of Mercy: September 4, 2016 - Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

“If anyone comes to me without hating . . . father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his [or her] own life” (Luke 14:26). Hating? Can anyone imagine a less appropriate Gospel for the Jubilee Year of Mercy? But scholars call this Semitic hyperbole. Jesus exaggerates to jolt us into confronting life-changing challenges. Faced with conflicting loyalties, disciples must reorder priorities, even relationships, to give Jesus and the gospel’s demands first place. Today’s second reading presents a real-life example. Paul challenges his wealthy convert, Philemon, to welcome back Philemon’s runaway slave, Onesimus, whom Paul has baptized in prison. Not only with unconditional forgiveness but with a counter-cultural, world-shattering change of status—as an equal. No, even more—a beloved brother in Christ. What in my life does the Jubilee Year of Mercy challenge me to “hate”—meaning reform, redo, even utterly revamp—so I can give everyone, no conditions, no exceptions, shockingly Christ-like love? —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Invited

The Good News is that we have all been invited—invited to the Kingdom, invited to be disciples. It’s a life-changing invitation, and like so many other such invitations, it requires a great deal of deliberation and discernment. Whether we choose marriage, ordination, single life, or community life, we know the serious planning and consideration that accompany these profound decisions. Like the tower-builder in the Gospel, we have weighed both the monetary and emotional cost. We have pondered and planned our lives in the direction to which we believe God has called us. And while we pray for guidance and acceptance of God’s will, we often fail to understand so much. Like Solomon, we turn to God for wisdom and counsel in our life-changing decisions.

Want to become a Catholic Christian through RCIA?

The mission of the Catholic Church is to preach the gospel as Jesus commanded us. If you would like to join the Catholic Church or know of someone who would like to join the Church, please contact St. Bridget’s or St. Mary’s Church offices. The process to join the Church is called RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). These sessions meet about once a week with presentations and discussions on various aspects about the Catholic Faith. Questions are always welcome at this sessions. We do have people at both parishes who have asked to join the Catholic Faith.

If you are interested, call or email the church offices or myself, and we will get you started. Thanks. Fr. Harris pastor@stbparish.com or 715-425-1879 ext. 103

65th Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations to Alvin and Donna Pechacek on celebrating their 65th Wedding Anniversary. They were married here at St. Bridget on September 8, 1951. May God's blessing be upon their family.

Upcoming November Elections

We strongly urge all parishioners to register, to become informed on key issues, and to vote. The Church does not support or oppose any candidate, but seeks to focus attention on the moral and human dimensions of issues. We do not authorize the distribution of partisan political materials on parish property.

The Joany Shepard Endowment Fund

In 2009, Joany Shepard left an endowment fund to St. Bridget Parish as a part of her legacy. The "Joany Fund" can be used to pay for opportunities that inspire spiritual formation in our church and faith. The "Joany Fund" has already helped to fund many projects in our parish. For information about the "Joany Fund," contact the parish office. Request forms are available in the parish office and need to be returned one week prior to the Joany Shepard Endowment Fund Meetings, which will be held on January 9, 2017, April 10, 2017, and July 10, 2017.

Knights of Columbus Fair Food Booth

Thank you parishioners, St B's youth, family members, KC members and those who traveled from afar to work at the KC Fair Booth during the 2016 Pierce County Fair. We appreciate all who stepped in to work a shift or two or more. The KC's especially thank those who came to work for their first time. God Bless You. If you missed out on the wonderful food this year, we look forward to seeing you next year.

Greeter Coordinator Needed

We are currently looking for a greeter coordinator. If you are an existing greeter or someone who is currently not a greeter and would like more information, please contact Barrett in the office. We also would like to thank Michelle Madsen for helping us for the last couple years as the coordinator.

Praise Team Starting Soon, Come Join Us!

The Praise Team leads the music for the 11 a.m. Mass three Sundays a month. We are looking for singers to join our group. High school age and older are encouraged to join. Confirmation candidates can fulfill their service hours through this group. Can't commit to every week....that's OK just come as often as you can. Practices this year will be on Wednesdays right after Faith Formation classes from 7:45-9 p.m. Contact Barrett with questions or to sign up. Our first practice will be September 7. Hope to see you there!

Faith in Our Future Update

Our parish community recently received a check from the Faith in Our Future: Our Legacy, Our Mission Campaign. This check was for $16,403.08 and will be used at St. Bridget to pay the principal on the mortgage. Thank you to all who have made a pledge to the campaign. We appreciate your support and payments on your pledge.

Picture Directory News

We have had a tremendous response to our new photo directory, and we are now scheduling photo sessions for October. Please look for the link on our website, click here: St. Bridget Photo Directory, sign up in the Fellowship Hall after all Masses, or call the office to schedule. If unable to make it in for a photo, we are able to accept submitted photos preferably in a horizontal format. Please note: submitting photos does cost the parish an extra fee so we prefer everyone, who can, have their picture taken here. Anyone who is interested in being a greeter for the September photos, please contact Sue in the church office.

Eucharistic Ministers Needed

We are in need of Eucharistic Ministers at the 11:00 a.m. mass. Have you considered joining this Ministry? As a Eucharistic Minister you will serve the people of our Parish by distributing the Body and Blood of Christ. Your commitment would be once every 3 weeks. Training is provided. Please prayerfully consider joining this fulfilling Ministry. If you are interested, please contact Amy Sabelko at amys8082@gmail.com or call 715-222-1467 for more information.
